Center for Elder Law & Justice is a non-profit civil legal services agency, providing free legal representation in eight Western New York counties.
Most of our services are limited to seniors (60 years of age and older), but some of our services are available to disabled and low income individuals as well.

It is the mission of Center for Elder Law & Justice to improve the quality of life for our clients through the provision of free legal services.
Our primary goal is to use the legal system to assure that our clients may live independently and with dignity.

How do I reach your office?

You can call our intake line at (716) 878 - 9297
Monday-Friday, 8:30am - 4:30pm.

You can also reach out to us on our website at www.elderjusticenyc.org.

Where do you provide services?

Our Niagara County office is located in Lockport, NY. We provide legal services to eight Western New York counties (Erie, Niagara, Orleans, Allegany, Chautauqua
Cattaraugus, Wyoming, Genesee) and the Seneca Nation.

How do I qualify for services?

Eligibility guidelines vary based on which county you live in and what kind of assistance you need. Please call our office or visit our website.

What if I cannot come to your office?

You can call our office to go through the intake process- you do not have to come in. If we need to meet you in person and you are unable to come in due to a disability or transportation issues, your attorney/paralegal team will make arrangements to accommodate you.
